Legislative Update
Mark Gjurasic

Mark Gjurasic is the principal of Public Affairs of Washington, LLC, specializing in governmental affairs representation, fundraising and educational services. He began his lobbying career in 1979. As a result, he has long-term relationships with many lawmakers both on the Congressional and State level.

Mark Gjurasic has represented the Building Owners and Managers Association for the last 15 years before the Washington State Legislature and agencies of government.

Mark addressed the following:

1. Repeal "on site" property managers tax passed in the 2010 session.
2. Opposes sales tax on janitorial services.
3. Reduce legislation that mandates energy audits and regulations.
4. Oppose split role taxation and parking tax.
5. Oppose utility tax(s) and street utility maintenance tax (street repair).
